

BIBLICAL CONTRADICTIONS PROVE CHRIST WAS NOT THE SON OF GOD!

By Oleg Dei

Believers tell you that Jesus Christ is the salvation in their lives because the Bible says so. We are told to accept that Jesus existed based upon the Gospels of the Bible, yet the Gospels are so poorly written that a logical person is at best left to ponder if Jesus even existed. The Gospels are full of contradictions, inconsistency, errors and don't compliment each other on very important details. This will serve as an example for just how unreliable the Gospels are.

Gospel Contradictions:

In Conclusion: It is clear from the evidence that there are major contradictions with regard to Jesus Christ in the Biblical scriptures. What we do know is - everything about this individual was written at least 100 years after his death and all of the information was passed on from person to person by oral tradition. The people who actually wrote about Christ, in reality never actually met him. It is impossible to know what Christ did or said with certainty because of the contradictory information presented in scripture. The story differs from writer to writer because each author naturally tells his version of the story. The New Testament and the basis for Christianity is based on the premise that Jesus Christ is the Son of God who defeated death and is supposed to return back to earth in an event referred to as the second coming. His return would spark a 1,000 year reign on Earth. The believers are kept in line by their religious leaders by withholding from them the correct date of Christ's return. They say it could happen anytime. Suppose the Bible through prophecy did provide the exact day of Christ's return. If the prophecy was unfulfilled than Christianity would be easily disproved by the Bible itself. Shockingly the Bible does provide the date when Christ was suppose to return. In the Bible, Christ himself promised his apostles that he would return in their lifetime. The fact that he never returned as promised is clearly a dark secret of Christianity that most believers do not even know. This forces the following undisputed set of conclusions or facts:

(1) The second coming or the return of Jesus Christ which is the most important prophesy of the Bible, has not been fulfilled. (2) The Bible is clearly not the word of God since the entire New Testament is rendered worthless because the second coming or most important prophesy never happened as prophesized. (3) Christ is not the Son of God because he failed to fulfill the most important prophesy of the Bible. (4) Christianity is nothing more than a fable or perhaps the greatest hoax in human history because the second coming never happened.
