

CONTRADICTIONS IN THE BIBLE

By Oleg Dei

We will continue our analysis of the Bible. In this chapter we will examine the Bible and find out if it is really the word of God or a bunch of old fables put together by superstitious old men. If the Bible was really the word of God written down by inspired holy men, then the Bible would read like one story completely in sync - chapter by chapter, verse by verse. Upon closer examination we find the Bible literally infested with hundreds and hundreds of contradictions many of them polar opposites. In conclusion: After thoroughly and carefully reviewing the Bible, one could only arrive at the following conclusion. The fact that there are hundreds and hundreds of contradictions in the Bible, clearly proves that this was not the word of any God but the writings of hundreds of authors, many of who are still unknown. These authors wrote their own version of what they believed to be true. Einstein was correct in dismissing the Bible as childish and Darwin was right on target in dismissing these fables and showing that the true origins of man was Evolution by Natural Selection. What amazes me is even today, there are millions of gullible and delusional individuals who actually believe that every word in the Bible is the word of God and waste their lives away, living a lie. This is completely ludicrous especially when all the evidence points to the contrary and the fact that millions of people have died in the name of religion, this is a sad commentary on humanity and its hopes for survival for the future.
